THE ATHLETE'S PARENT ATHLETE OF THE MONTH

OCTOBER 2017

FRISCO, TX (November 13, 2017) – The Athlete's Parent officially announces its October 2017 Athlete of the Month, Camron Pitcher, varsity football player out of Centennial High School of Corona, California. The Athlete's Parent Athlete of the Month award recognizes and highlights high school-aged athletes who exemplify standout performance in their sport; academic excellence; and honorable character on and off the field.

The 6 foot senior linebacker has caught the eye of collegiate coaches, and has received offers to play college football from Columbia University, the University of Pennsylvania, Cornell University, and the College of Idaho. Pitcher was named to the 2016 MaxPreps 2nd Team All State, 1st Team All CIF, 1st Team All Area, and was honored as the Big VIII Defensive Player of the Year.

In addition to his impressive athletic achievements, he continues to maintain a rigorous academic schedule while being part of 2 to 3 varsity teams each year in high school. In 2016 Pitcher was named to the Big VIII All Academic Team, and has consistently taken 2 to 3 advanced classes while being the defensive captain on a nationally-ranked high school football team. Pitcher is currently enrolled in AP Calculus BC, AP English Literature, and AP Environmental Science. This year he has also taken on two part-time jobs, and has not missed a day of school, work or football.

Pitcher carries an impressive work load, and not only takes part in these activities, but is succeeding in them immensely. Those close to him attribute his success both on and off the football field to an internal drive in Camron to do well in what he participates in. Part of his drive is rooted in a respect for the teachers and coaches he works with and the level of seriousness he places on each commitment he makes.

He is now eligible for The Athlete's Parent Athlete of the Year award which will be announced on January 31, 2018. For more information regarding The Athlete's Parent, please visit www.TheAthletesParent.com
